A Lifetime of Possessions

Many adults making a later life home transition have not moved in 30, 40 or 50 years and need to downsize considerably. The organization and physical tasks associated with planning and implementing such a move can be overwhelming. Moving is stressful for all of us, but may be even more challenging for families experiencing issues such as:

- Chronic Illness
- Relocation Stress Syndrome
- Transition Trauma
- Complex Family Dynamics
- Intricate Asset Management
- Dementia or Mild Memory Impairment
- Clutter or Hoarding
- Long Distance Travel & Communication

Fortunately, older adults and their families now have the opportunity to connect with qualified professionals who can assist with the physical and emotional demands of moving.

Get OrderLee is part of a national network of trained, screened and accredited Relocation Specialists. We manage all aspects of 55+ home transitions including planning, sorting household items, arranging for packing, unpacking and coordinating resources. We are dedicated to helping clients and their families by capably and securely managing the entire move process from start to finish.

A Senior Move Manager can:

- Conduct an in-home assessment
- Develop and overall move plan
- Customize space planning for your new home
- Organize, sort, and downsize the home
- Arrange for disposal of unwanted items through estate sale or donation
- Interview, schedule, and oversee movers, contractors, and other third parties
- Arrange shipments, crating, or storage
- Arrange professional packing
- Unpack and create a new home environment
- Arrange and manage related services such as cleaning, waste removal, shopping, assistance in selection of a realtor, home staging, and/or prepare the original residence for sale
- Coordinate Care-Managers and Certified Age-in-Place contractors
- Arrange for Age-in-Place modifications

We understand.

We can help.

We seek to support the emotional transitions of late life moves.

Save time, money, & frustration

Working with a Transition Specialist can save valuable time, money, and frustration during a major move, transition, or downsize. A Certified Relocation and Transition Specialist can:

- Save time by quickly finding and coordinating reputable resources to help with every part of the move
- Help reduce moving costs
- Save money by helping to efficiently bring the original home to sale
- Save frustration by taking what seems to be an overwhelming situation and breaking it into manageable parts
- Reduce family stress that can sometimes arise during times of transition
- Reduce many of the physical demands of a move
- Compassionately walk through the “letting go” process
- Help to make the day of the move seamless and less stressful
